FIDE organizes Amateur Chess Championships under three categories, namely, below 2300, below 2000 and below 1700. But our National amateur Chess Championship will be held only under one category i.e. below 2300 ELO.

However, it was decided that placings will be given as per the above three categories of rating. Therefore, it was resolved that the players should inform in writing the category that they would like to be identified with, to the organizers before the start of the first round of the National Amateur Chess Championship and they would be permitted to participate only in that category in Asian/ World Amateur Chess Championship as per the championship regulations.

2. Eligibility:

- i. For the under-2300 section, a player must not have a published FIDE rating of 2300 or greater for at least one year prior to the start of the championship. All players must not hold any title above FM (or WFM for women) in the section Under-2300.
- ii. For the Under-2000 section, a player must not have a published FIDE rating of 2000 or greater for at least one year prior to the start of the championship.

All players must not hold any title above CM (or WCM for women) in the sections Under-2000.

- iii. For the Under-1700 section, a player must not have a published FIDE rating of 1700 or greater for at least one year prior to the start of the championship. All players must not hold any title above CM (or WCM for women) in the sections Under-1700.
- iv. All players registered with their respective State Associations/ AICF affiliated units are eligible to participate in the National Amateur Championship.
- v. The State Chess Associations/ AICF affiliated units have the right of sending any number of entries.
- vi. The National Amateur Women Championship shall be held as a part of National Amateur Chess Championship and female participants are eligible to win both the titles as per performance. However, all the entries should be forwarded by the respective State Chess Associations/Affiliated Units of the players.
- vii. Only Indian Nationals are eligible to participate in the Championships.

3. Dress Code:

As per AICF regulations on Dress Code for players participating in all the National championships, all State Associations should send their players including special/donor entry players with proper uniform (As regards special /donor entry players, the respective state chess associations may collect the cost of the uniform from the players). Players should at least wear uniform T Shirts /formal shirts (same colour and brand with the name of the State printed prominently at the back and the state chess emblem in the front left side). The name / logo of the sponsors can be permitted. Girls / Women to be also given appropriate uniform dress. The above rule will also be applicable to Special units. Players without proper uniform will not be permitted to take part in the championship. This will be strictly enforced.

4. Entries/Entry Fee:

All entries including special entries should come through the concerned State Association. Entry fee is Rs. 2000 /- for each player. Players from North East and Andaman and Nicobar Islands will get a discount of 50% on the entry fee.
