St. Peters International School has currently entered into the 322nd year of gratifying service to the people of Kodaikanal; founded by J. Sambabu and his wife Nirmala in the year 1985, since then the school has grown to great heights.

The new infrastructure includes: a one of a kind Indoor basketball stadium, international standard hostels, large sporting grounds, a well stocked library, and a beautiful chapel.

The school is renowned for its academic standing and leadership building qualities.

The School also provides three Syllabuses currently :

1. The Cambridge International Syllabus IGCSE.
2. The CBSE Curriculum and
3. The Matriculation Syllabus.

The students are given the benefit to choose from either one.

Apart from studies Peter's was always known for its sports, winning the Zonals for more than a decade and also representing state in Basketball, Table Tennis and Badminton

The school is known for its diversity of students forming a multicultural environment with students from all over the World.

The school being located in a scenic spot in Kodaikanal surrounded by trees and mountains makes it a peaceful healthy place to live in .

Kodaikanal being a POLLUTION FREE town makes it all the more better for students to stay and study with fresh air to breathe and beautiful views which will last in their eyes a lifetime.

Teachers make the Campus a Home away from Home .
